MUSIC REVIEW/JOURNALISTS

Mr. Ramirez: Athletic Instructor

A lot of music dropped last week, I also got around to finishing J. Cole's album from like years ago, I can see why the project itself did really well. It was really well put together. It was something new and something different. Joyner Lucas also dropped "Will" and Will Smith dropped a remix to it, i really enjoyed both the remix and the regular version. The good thing about our reviews is that we can be completely honest without receiving any backlash for not liking a certain song or artist, so feel free to give some constructive criticism. I also listened to some music from like 6 years ago just because there isn't anything to do.

GAMING NEWS FOR YOU

Mr. Valenzuela: Senior Youth Leader

Seattle Home Series Champions

Before this home series, The Chicago Huntsmen made some team roster movements. They subbed out one of their starters without him even being told, while a substitute filled in his role during scrimmages.

A few days later we got the news that the brother of Alec Sanders from the Florida Mutineers was being traded to be reunited with him.

Now, two weekends ago at the Seattle Home Series, Preston Sanders newest member of The Chicago Huntsmen has a big hole he needs to fill.

If you're a huge fan of competitive gaming just as I am, you would've seen how The Huntsmen were playing in all cylinders from winning their match on Friday against Paris Legion 3-1. On the second day of the event in qualifiers they matched up against Minnesota Rokkr where they won 3-0. Finally, on Sunday Finals they went against The New York Subliners where they won 3-1, moving on to play against the London Royal Ravens where they ended up winning the Championship going 3-1.
